of the late Florence Botsio

The late Florence Botsio, affectionately known as Sister Ekuwa Afowah, was born to Opanyin Kwame Botsio and Obaapanyin Ama Fowah, both of blessed memory. She was raised in a disciplined and nurturing home that instilled in her the values of hard work, humility, and respect for others.

Florence began her formal education at Egufo Local Authority Primary School and Middle School, where she completed her basic education in 1970. She later continued her education at Edina Hill Vocational School in Winneba, where she acquired practical skills that prepared her for independent living and entrepreneurship.

After completing her education, Florence got married to Mr. Alexis Quansah of blessed memory, a native of Winneba. Following her marriage, she relocated to Mankessim, where she settled and established her trade. Through diligence and perseverance, she worked tirelessly to support herself and her household, earning the respect of those who knew and interacted with her.

Florence was known for her quiet strength, resilience, and commitment to her responsibilities. She lived her life with dignity and purpose, touching the lives of many through her presence and interactions within her community.

Sadly, her life was cut short when she passed away on 17th October, 2025. Though her departure has left a deep void in the hearts of her family and loved ones, her memory remains cherished, and her legacy continues to live on through those whose lives she touched.

Tribute By Children

John 15:9-10

Mama Florence, our beloved mother, your passing has left a deep pain in our hearts. You were a loving and caring mother who always did your best for us. Through your hard work and sacrifice, you taught us the value of perseverance, honesty, and respect for others. As God loved our sweet mother, so did she love all her children.

You were not just our mother but also our guide and support. Even in difficult times, you encouraged us to be strong. She was a very hardworking woman who spoke less and did everything she could for her family. She was a woman of faith in the Lord and became a strong member of her church.

Mama, you may no longer be with us in person, but your love, lessons, and memories will live on in our hearts forever. We will continue to honor you by living the values you taught us and by supporting one another as you always wished. Rest peacefully, Mama. You will always be remembered and deeply loved.
